the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million, from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1995. The public sector has grown from 10% of the economy in 1980 to 15% in 1995.

There is a growing emphasis on the need to improve the efficiency of the public sector. This has led to a number of initiatives, including the introduction of competition, the restructuring of public services, and the introduction of performance targets. The aim of these initiatives is to reduce the cost of public services and to improve the quality of the services provided. The public sector is a major employer in the UK, and it is important that it is able to attract and retain the best talent. This requires a number of measures, including the introduction of flexible working arrangements, the provision of training and development opportunities, and the introduction of performance-related pay.

The public sector is also facing a number of challenges, including the need to reduce the cost of public services, the need to improve the quality of the services provided, and the need to attract and retain the best talent. These challenges are being met by a number of initiatives, including the introduction of competition, the restructuring of public services, and the introduction of performance targets. YEARS OF PIONEER SPIRIT

New School Affords New

No, your eyes aren't deceiving you! It is the wall of the auditorium at half-mast. This phenomenon occurred during a storm when the school was under construction. (1939 PH)

George Rogers Clark school was built in the Roberts-dale section of Hammond in 1932. It replaced Franklin junior high school and West Park elementary school which failed to meet the increasing educational needs of the growing community. This new and modern building, which housed 12 classes plus kindergarten, contained many classrooms and a gymnasium. In 1939 an auditorium, library, science laboratories and several classrooms were added. A cafeteria expanded the facilities in 1949.

Clark Pioneers of the past were very much like the Pioneers of today. They studied hard, held part time jobs, helped at home and still found time to have lots of fun. There are, of course, some noticeable differences between the two eras. Today's food fad of pizza and Pepsis was probably preceded by chocolate malts and almond ice cream; the jitterbug by the fox trot and short haircuts by shoulder length tresses.

These connoisseurs were members of an early boys' foods class. They were staunch supporters of the still-popular belief, "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach." (1946 PH)

Friends, New Classes

Senior Dress-up Day was the one time seniors could legally act like freshmen. (1942 PH)

Except for the style of clothing, this scene is familiar today. "Standin' on the corner", Clarkites rehash the day's events. (1942 PH)

After-game dances held in room 8 celebrated victory or softened the blow of defeat. (1947 PH)

YEARS OF PIONEER SPIRIT

Place the face! These faculty members participated in the Dad's-Faculty game. Who won? There are two decidedly different sides to that story! (1940 PH)

Then, as now, the prom was a grand and glorious event. The first proms were held in the big gym. (1938 PH)

Clark has always had enthusiastic cheerleaders to lead loyal fans in spurring athletic teams on to VICTORY! (1940 PH)

Early Pioneer Participants

Activities and athletics invited the participation and held the interest of former Clarkites.

Clubs such as Girl Reserves and the Radio club correspond to present-day organizations. GAC, C Club and Hi-Y of yesteryear are familiar clubs today. These and many others kept the first Pioneers busy while helping to broaden their interests and develop their personalities.

Five hundred seventy-seven Clark graduates engaged in a far more serious activity—World War II. Twenty-three gave their lives. Many graduates served in Korea also.

In the short span of 25 years Clark's athletic teams have honored her not only with many victories and nobly accepted defeats, but also with numerous championships and awards. In 1937 the wrestling team won the State Wrestling Championship. The football team captured the Western Division Title in 1943 and again in 1944. Not to be outdone, the basketball team won the Sectional Tournament in 1943, the Conference Title in 1944 and twice won the Western Division Title. In 1956 the tennis team attained the Western Division Title.

The Commando course was designed to prepare Junior and Senior boys physically for their future in the Armed Service. (1943 PH)

Those two young men on the left look very familiar, don't they? (1947 PH)

The playground swallowed up by a sea of blue . . . ? No, it was a girls' gym class exercising vigorously to keep trim. (1942 PH)

Tom Roman and Gary Hopperstad try, in vain, to talk Mrs. Jacobs into reversing the decision and canceling their eighth hours.

Pioneers Go Modern

Pioneers have gone modern—in their clothing and hair styles, which is evident when these pictures are compared with those on the previous pages, and even in their daily school schedule.

The bright and shining faces of the eight hundred 1957 Pioneers had to appear in their respective homerooms by 8:30. To some this seemed like the middle of the night, but in comparison with the schedule of their predecessors it isn't quite so bad. They had to report one-half hour earlier—at 8:00! Some Clark-i'es managed to be punctual because they drove cars to school. Others were saved only by the fact that the school clocks are set five minutes slow!

After the 10 minute homeroom period the students, who by this time were wide awake, passed to classes. Some of them had three 55 minute classes before their lunch hour which began at 11:30. Others found it necessary to endure pangs of hunger for they had the later lunch hour at 12:30. This double lunch hour system was instituted when the number of students who ate in the cafeteria became too large to serve in one hour.

'Trip the light fantastic' . . . and it wouldn't be hard on this obstacle course! There are a few changes made when Mr. Victor Georgas, modern problems substitute teacher, appears on the scene.

Have you ever wondered 'for whom the bell tolls'? Please except our explanation.

The afternoon session, which included three classes for the early lunchers and two for the others, was dismissed at 3:30. Students streamed from the building anxious to get home early or to get to work on time. But some were left behind to pay the consequences (eighth hours) for their misdemeanors.

To facilitate club meetings an activity period was established a few years ago. On Wednesday the first, second and third periods are each shortened 15 minutes. This extra time provides for an activity period between first and second period.

Amid requests for autographs everyone feels like a movie star when the POWDER HORN is issued.

Betty Jean Koney, Marge Lattak and Ruth Ann Rudser confer with Mr. Antilla . . . looks serious, doesn't it?

Joe Mehok and Dave Paskwitz choose their name cards while Dick Dubish orders his from Dolores Petri. Jim Agnes declares his state of bankruptcy to Joan Scaman.

Daily Except Saturday and Sunday

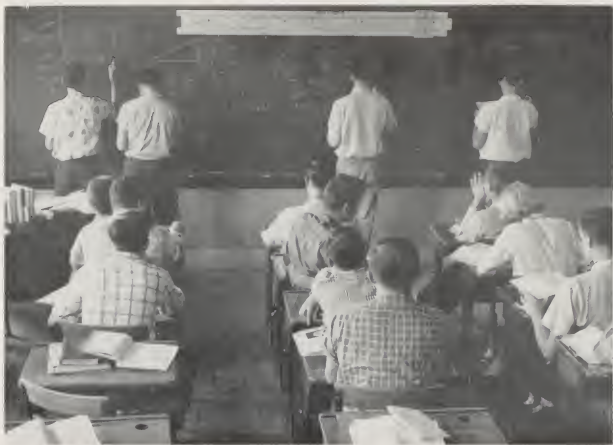

Liver, lungs, heart . . . In Mr. Norman Banas' health class Carol Biel and Donna Bragiel prove nothing here has changed in 25 years.

Pat Wachel, Marge Lattak and Irene Horvat learn how to operate two new pieces of business machinery.

Stress is proportional to strain according to Hooke's Law and that is what Robert Blasko and Tony Priesol are demonstrating in physics.

Richard Hughes, John Kirn, Fred Kieras and James Nagy are attempting to solve right triangles in their study of trigonometry.

Getting a preview of some of the materials they will use in biology are James Phillips, Joanne Bernicky, Allan Susoreny and Mary Ann Biel.

Looks like kindergarten but really it's not. Ronn Patterson, Pat Sandrick and Bill Rosenstein are taking IQ tests in modern problems class.

Clarkites Strive to Perfect

In order to meet the wants and needs of Clark students, a German class was added to the curriculum this year. Along with Latin and Spanish, the other languages offered at Clark, German prepares college preparatory students for further and advanced study. While learning the mechanics of the language students also become acquainted with the country and the people from which it is derived.

Shop, sewing and cooking help to prepare Clarkites for their future, whether the student plans to have a career in one of these fields or to use the skill in his daily life. Besides the smashed thumbs, pricked fingers and burned morsels gained throughout the year, students pursuing these courses gain much knowledge and skill. In addition they profit by material items. Shop classes construct useful articles, sewing classes make various pieces of clothing which they model in their annual style show and the cooking classes gain in more ways than one by the luscious goodies they concoct!

In Mrs. Rebekah Eddy's German class, Camille Kessler puzzles over a translation while David McClure and Marcia McCutcheon translate 'Der Ratze fangt die Maus'.

While Joan Dubeck and Kay Kollmar work at sewing machines, Annette Gajewski fits Maryann Koselke's blouse for her.

Their Skills

Mr. David Hein, Balazs Volom and Walt Whittler work with up to date machinery in shop.

Dances Highlight School Year

"Blue Moon", a dress-up dance, was given by the Junior Class on November 10. The crowning of a king and queen was the main attraction.

Clarkites are frequently seen in the gym on Saturday afternoon hauling ladders around, dangling from the balcony and throwing rolls of crepe paper to each other. These actions are entirely normal—they are decorating the gym for a dance! Their efforts prove to be most worthwhile, for the gym that houses classes and athletic teams five days a week is transformed into a splendid ballroom for the weekend dance.

Ranging in type from sock hops to semi-formals, dances are sponsored by school clubs and classes throughout the school year.

Special events were featured at several dances this year. The main attraction of the C Club dance and of the Junior class dance was the crowning of royalty. At the "Basket Ball", sponsored by Booster club, varsity, B-Squad and Freshman basketball teams and their respective cheerleaders were introduced. An autograph dance was given by the POWDER HORN staff to celebrate the publication of the 1957 PH.

Santa Claus made his appearance at the orchestra dance "Sleighride Fantasy" on December 21. This was one of several informal dances presented during the year.

Another Class . . . Come and Gone

At last the long-awaited moment arrived. Adorned in blue caps and gowns 165 members of the Class of 1956 received their diplomas on June 7, 1956. Mr. James Sparks, president of the Class of 1935, Clark's first graduating class, delivered the commencement address.

We Could Have Danced All Night!

Madura's Danceland was the setting for the Junior Prom. "Moments to Remember", on June 1, 1956. Pat de Mure and his dance band provided dreamy music from 8:30 until 11:30. Many couples attended the Post Prom Party.

Curtain Going Up

Junior Class Play

Trials and tribulations of a high school dramatics teacher producing her first play are revealed in this comedy by Gregory Johnston. Miss Irene Burgess (Beth Madsen) is faced with the disappearance of the playbooks on the first day of rehearsal, a grouchy janitor Mr. Tony Peterson (Robert Shoemaker), a stage-struck leading lady Loretta Fuller (Crystal Ruskin) and several mixed-up romances.

Other characters were Nancy Leveridge (Barbara Dean) who vied for the leading role in Miss Burgess's play; Jocko Guthrie (Tom Regeski) the male star in Miss Burgess's play; Andrew Fullbright (Michael Benne) the jealous lover of Loretta; Mr. Norman Carter (Frank Lenz) the suitor of Miss Burgess who was futilely pursued by Miss Carolyn Moran (JoAnn Stolarz); Milt Sanders (Ron Hooper) the practical joker of Miss Burgess's cast; and Elsie Hunter (Ruth Ann Rudser) Miss Burgess's stage director. Janet Young (Judy Pivarnik), Sylvia Moore (Phyllis Burosh) and Joan White (Sue Cox) were cast members; Buck O'Hara (Douglas Anderson) was the matinee idol of 'the play within the play'; Miss Henrietta Rivers (Ruth Klemm) critic of Miss Burgess's teaching techniques; Kyle Roberts (Pat Sandrick) Broadway actress and aunt of Jocko; Mrs. Young (Lora Lee Throm), Mr. Leveridge (Fred Thurston) and Mrs. Adkins (Marcia Tolchinsky) along with townspeople John Redding, Bill Liehe and Lorraine Mazur congratulated Miss Burgess.

"Jocko! Andy! Don't fight! I'm not worth it!" Loretta and Nancy separate the two boys who are fighting over Loretta's affection.

"But Papa, Randolph will be killed!" In Miss Burgess's play Loretta urges her father Andrew to give up a duel.

"Buck, Buck, sign my program!" (Oh, what a man!) Buck O'Hara is chased by his ardent admirers.

"Miss Burgess, just look at all the telegrams congratulating you on the play." With their director Miss Burgess, Elsie Hunter, Sylvia Moore and Joan White look over congratulatory messages.

"Humph! Teachers yet! I ain't seen 'sech' goins-on since I come here." Mr. Peterson expresses his feelings about the actions of Mr. Carter and Miss Burgess.

As the curtain went down on the final act of Curtain Going Up, the cast took its bow.

You Can't Take It With You

All—School Play

This merry comedy about the madcap Sycamore family and their goofy diversions was written by Moss Hart and George Kaufman.

Uninhibited is the word for this zany clan. Mrs. Sycamore (Marcia Tolchinsky) became an aspiring authoress when a typewriter was delivered to her home by mistake. Her husband Paul (Frank Lenz) and Mr. DePinna (Richard Kender), an iceman who made a delivery eight years earlier and never got around to leaving, manufacture fireworks in the basement. Essie (Jean Goginski), the Sycamores' daughter, makes candy when she's not taking ballet lessons from the 'mad Russian' Kolenkhov (Don Antkowiak). His protegee Olga (Judy Grogan), 'the Duchess', whips up some cheese blintzes when she visits the Sycamores. Essie's husband Ed (Dennis Matusko) prints Trotsky's maxims on his press in the living room and distributes them with her candy. Alice (Shirley Ringgenberg), the Sycamores' other daughter and the only normal member of the family, falls in love with her employer's son Tony Kirby (Brian Fry). Their romance is nearly wrecked when Tony's parents (Ruth Klemm and Fred Thurston) pay an unexpected visit to the Sycamores and find them acting 'naturally'. Gay Wellington (Jo Ann Dudzik), a has-been actress, camps in the Sycamores' front room in an inebriated condition and helps to give the Kirbys an undesirable impression. Martin Vanderhoff (Michael Benne), the wise grandfather, is mistakenly accused of withholding income tax from the government. Henderson (Ron Hooper) and the other government agents (Bill Etheridge and Bob Passage) are appalled by this eccentric family. Rheba (Kathy Zvonar), the Sycamores' maid, and her boy friend Donald (Larry Rollinson) add to the hilarity of the play.

"My Pavlova, art is only achieved through perspiration!" Kolenkhov and Essie work, work, work toward her debut.

"Really, Tony, are you sure this is the night?" gasps Mrs. Kirby to her son when they visit the Sycamores on the wrong night and find them engaged in their 'normal' pursuits.

Grandpa, Rheba, Paul, Donald and Mrs. Sycamore listen eagerly to Gav Wellington's mebriated chatter.

"I don't care if you don't believe in income tax, you have to pay it!" roars Henderson to Grandpa.

The 'family' gathers around the table for dinner and Grandpa asks the blessing, "Well, Sir."

Sports Panorama in Clark's Silver Year

Cheerleaders Crystal Ruskin, Arlene Miniuk, Cooky Kaleta and Elaine Doerr lead a rousing cheer at the pep session held prior to the Clark-Whiting football game.

This float, which won first prize in the parade before the Homecoming game with Whiting, was sponsored by the Future Teachers of America, Library club, POWDER HORN and Pioneer News.

Clearing the low hurdles Leland Bollhorst, Bob Kania and Jim Kokenis attempt to finish in good time.

Cliff Bartlett tries a one-handed jump shot in the Clark-Froebel game.

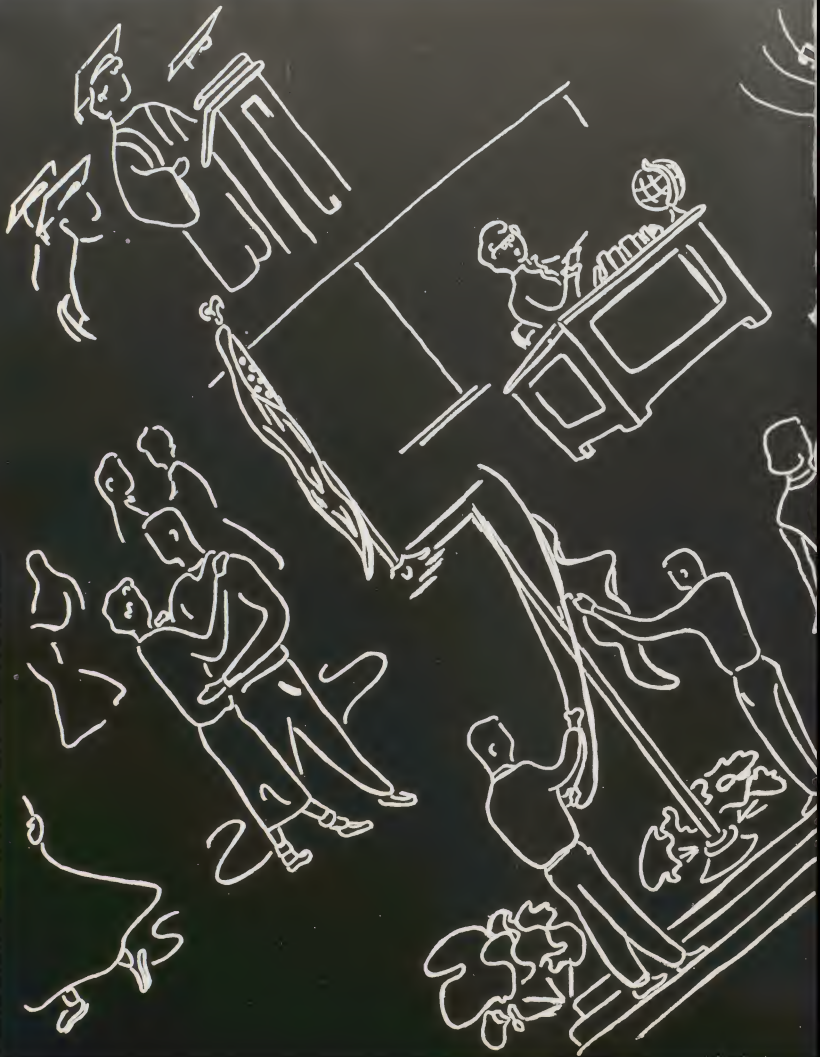

Varsity wrestlers Dick Dubish and Jim Spataro demonstrate their grunt'n groan skills.

Rudy Kutansky crosses the plate to bring home an important run.

"With nothing less than victory our mark, let the spirit of George Rogers Clark inspire you . . ."

YEARS OF OUTSTANDING

PERSONALITIES

George Rogers Clark is a basic part of each personality and each personality is a basic, and a very important part of GRC. A personality in his years at Clark acquires ideals, beliefs, friends, activities and interests and, in turn, imparts the benefits of these to his school.

Helping Us to Enter the World, Heads High

Surely there could be no better time for prospect or retrospect than the occasion of a twenty-fifth anniversary. Since 1932, when its doors were opened to them, George Rogers Clark has been serving the boys and girls of the Robertsdale area of Hammond and, for their secondary school years, also many from the Lincoln and Irving districts.

The class of 1957 brings the number of graduates to a total of 3315. Many of these graduates have distinguished themselves in business and professional lives and the names of more than 600 are to be found on the honor roll of those who served their country in World War II.

Early in the history of the school the following creed was adopted:

"To the best of our ability we shall endeavor to faithfully serve our school,
Honor and uphold its name,
Strive for high scholarship, citizenship,
and sportsmanship."

With true pioneer spirit, characteristic of the great patriot for whom the school was named, successive student groups have striven to make that creed operative and effective, and as we look into the years ahead we doubt not that each class to come will staunchly lend its efforts to add luster to the name of George Rogers Clark.

Senior Class

Senior Class History

The Class of 1957 was officially organized in February of 1954 under the direction of Miss Alice Bollin. Earl Fruchling was elected president with Jim Spataro as vice president, Dorothy Figler as secretary and Maureen Raycroft as treasurer. The most outstanding event of our 'green year' was our class dance, "Moonlight Serenade", on May 28, 1954.

Don Kurcz was chosen president of our Sophomore Class in the fall of 1954. Assisting Don were vice president Bob Ciesco, secretary Dorothy Figler and treasurer Frank Lenz. On February 28, 1955, we presented "Mardi Gras Mingle". In March we chose our class rings and in April we selected "Hitch Your Wagon to a Star" as our class motto, red and silver as our class colors and the tea rose as our class flower.

As juniors we made our debut as upperclassmen. We elected Bob Ciesco, president; Tom Regeski, vice president; Dorothy Figler, secretary; and Nan Collins, treasurer. "Snowflake Whirl" was our third successful class dance on December 3, 1955. We presented our class play, "Curtain Going Up", on April 13, 1956. Twenty-two juniors took part in this hilarious comedy. Highlighting this year was our Prom, "Moments to Remember", held on June 1, 1956, at Madura's Danceland with Pat DeMure's Band. The post-prom party was at a local restaurant. These certainly were 'moments to remember'!

At last, we were seniors! We chose Bob Ciesco to lead our class as president, with Dick Dubish as vice president, Dorothy Figler as secretary and Mike Benak as treasurer. "Starlight Rhapsody", our last class dance, was held on December 15, 1956. Refreshments and a band added to this unforgettable occasion.

As time passed we were busy ordering name cards, announcements, graduation robes and preparing for our banquet and the senior assembly.

We shall often think of our happiest days — our high school days.

As Jack Krc, president of the Class of 1956, presented the class key to Bob Ciesco, president of the Class of 1957, we officially became seniors. This tradition of presenting the key, one class to another, was began by the first graduating class in 1935.

Senior Sponsor Bids Class Farewell

Dear Class of 1957:

When I was asked to sponsor the Class of 1957 I accepted it as a challenge and I sincerely feel that I have met this challenge with much satisfaction, for I have learned to know many of you as interesting individuals. Each of you had something to offer and many of you offered much of your time, talent and energy.

At times it seemed that you were letting me down but some faithful ones always came through and success was ours.

I shall miss you next year, but I shall never forget you.

Now that you are leaving high school I extend best wishes for your success and happiness. I would like to leave with you a thought which may be as helpful to you as it has been to me:

"Know thyself, be thyself, accept thyself and allow no exceptions".

Sincerely,

Alice M. Bollin

YEARS OF WORTHWHILE

ACTIVITIES

With true Pioneer spirit Clark students enter into school activities. Deriving pleasure and a sense of achievement from their participation they are duly rewarded for their efforts. As club members they begin or continue activities that help prepare them for the positions they need to assume in the future.

GRC Security Council

Governing the student body of George Rogers Clark is the function of the Student Council. It is composed of representatives and alternates who are elected from their respective homerooms. To be eligible for membership on the council, one must maintain a "C" average or better throughout the school year.

This year the council's main objective was to improve the student attitude both in and out of school. The first step in attempting to accomplish this goal was the establishment of the Student Safety Commission.

To celebrate the silver anniversary of Clark special activities were sponsored by the council. During the year the council members also presented a program for the PTA and sponsored a magazine drive. Future assemblies will be sponsored by the profits from this drive.

Under the jurisdiction of the vice-president of Student Council is the Student Review Board. Violators of the code of standards for student conduct are reported to the board. The offenders are acquitted or punished justifiably by their fellow students.

Raising the flag each morning and taking it down after school is another Student Council activity. Preparing to raise the flag are Lorraine Mazur and Pat Malone.

Leadership, scholarship, character and service . . . these are the qualifications one must have to become a member of the National Honor Society. The objectives of the organization are to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to promote worthy leadership and to stimulate a desire to render service.

Outstanding juniors and seniors, who are elected by the faculty at the beginning of the second semester on the basis of the specified qualifications, constitute the membership of the club.

Students belonging to the NHS have the opportunity to compete for special scholarships.

Under the club's jurisdiction the Harold Zimmer Memorial Award is presented to a Senior boy each year.

Speech Is Power

Proudly wearing their National Forensic League pins are members of debate or speech who have earned twenty-one points in debate, original oratory, drama, poetry, humor or extemporaneous speaking.

Four degrees may be earned by a participant in this field. They are the Degree of Merit, the Degree of Honor, the Degree of Excellence and the Degree of Distinction.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Arthur Erickson, the debaters discussed the nationally important subject: "That the Federal government should subtain the prices of major agricultural products at not less than 90 per cent of parity".

Book Keepers

Many Clark girls who maintained a "C" average or better and had one free period a day belonged to the Library club sponsored by Miss Harriet Lake, librarian.

Their duties included checking books in and out, repairing worn volumes, sending reminders on overdue books and assembling displays to portray special events or some phase of literature.

At Christmas time they decorated the library and trimmed their Christmas tree. As a climax to their holiday festivities they had a Christmas party and gift exchange.

Take Dictation, Please!

Clark girls with aspirations to become secretaries are given insight into their chosen profession by joining the Secretaries' club. During the year members had the opportunity of seeing business machinery demonstrated and hearing secretaries describe their work. All girls enrolled in secretarial courses are eligible for membership.

A guest speaker at one of their meetings was a model from a Chicago agency. She spoke on poise and good-grooming in connection with their future occupation.

Club meetings were held on the fourth Wednesday of the month under the supervision of Miss Joan Coughlan.

Meet the Press

Each Monday morning a sigh of relief is breathed by the newspaper staff members when they see another week's labors in the form of the Pioneer News being circulated among the faculty and students.

For several years the PN has been awarded the highest honor possible in the National Scholastic Press Association judging, 'ALL AMERICAN', for presenting a neat and accurate account of all school activities. This year the paper was accepted to the Quill and Scroll Society, a journalistic honor association.

Special entertaining editions of the Pioneer News for Thanksgiving, Christmas, April Fool's Day, Easter and graduation were issued by the staff. This year the PN staff presented more printed pages to Clark students than ever before.

Bookmakers

Striving to publish the best POWDER HORN in Clark's history was the 1957 PH staff headed by Nan Collins, editor, and Pat Schultz, associate editor.

New ideas gained by the editors while attending the Indiana High School Journalism Institute were introduced in the 1957 yearbook. Special features include a full color picture and, for the first time, studio pictures of the teachers.

Much credit is due to the advertising staff which sold $1650 worth of ads, a record amount. Seven hundred books, more than ever before, were sold by the subscription staff.

Working to make the yearbook a success were 36 staff members. Mr. George Muir advised the staff and sponsored the publication.

Medics

Joining the long list of Clark organizations this year was the Medical Arts club. Membership was open to juniors and seniors interested in professions in the field of medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, veterinary medicine, optometry and physiotherapy.

The purpose of the club is to acquaint members with vocational opportunities in medical professions, and the rewarding experiences in aiding humanity.

White Caps

Any girl who is interested in acquiring more knowledge about the nursing profession is welcome to join the Future Nurses' club. Some of the members become seriously interested in pursuing a career in nursing while others are helped to realize that they are not suited for such a career.

To acquaint the members with the various aspects of the field of nursing is the purpose of the club. This year representatives from various schools of nursing in this area informed the girls about their nursing programs. In addition there were also representatives from the Nurse Corps of the Army, Navy and Air Force and from specialized fields such as surgical and pediatric nursing.

Specimen Stylists

To stimulate interest and give students an opportunity to further their knowledge of biological problems is the purpose of the Biology club. Membership was limited to those students who were enrolled in biology and to students who had been members previously. Divided into two groups, one section met after school and the other held meetings during activity period. The members worked on any type of project which interested them particularly.

Because the organization is a work club, no officers were elected and no fund-raising project was necessary.

With the Future in Mind

A relatively new club at Clark is the Conservation club which is in its second year of operation. Under the sponsorship of Miss Wanda Wilharm the members make a constant and persistent effort to understand and learn the urgency and necessity of conserving their natural resources.

The aim and purpose of the Conservation club is embraced in the Conservation pledge which reads "I give my pledge as an American to save and faithfully defend from waste the natural resources of my country — its soil and its minerals, its forests, waters and wildlife."

Synchronized to Serve

Preparing a gift box of food for a needy family at Thanksgiving time and constructing nut cups and gifts for hospitalized children during the Christmas season occupied the Junior-Senior Girls' Club of Christian Service. They also found time during the latter part of the school year to sponsor a dance.

Under the direction of Mrs. Shirlee Williams, sponsor, the club met during activity period on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month.

Able Aides

"Buy a Christmas corsage" was the motto of the Freshman-Sophomore Girls Club of Christian Service during the holiday season. Further evidence of their Christmas spirit was seen as they made nut cups and gifts for patients in area hospitals.

Sponsoring a dance, "Sleighride to Bopland", provided funds for other activities.

A main feature at one of their meetings was learning about poise from a Patricia Stevens model.

Ready, Willing and Able

To extend throughout the home, school and community high standards of Christian character is the purpose of the Junior-Senior Hi-Y.

According to tradition they sponsored the first dance of the school year, "The Hi-Y Mixer". Proceeds from this dance were donated to the World Service Fund. Another dance was given by them later in the year.

Several members, with their sponsor Mr. Paul Wilkinson, attended the state conference in Muncie.

Learning to Serve

Selling milk in the lunchroom, checking coats at dances and selling football and basketball schedule pencils constituted some of the activities of the Freshman-Sophomore Hi-Y.

Boys representing the group traveled to the district and state conferences where they helped on the World Service Project.

To create, maintain and extend throughout the home, school and community standards of Christian character is the purpose of the club.

Service Personified

To promote friendship among people of all races, religions and nationalities is the main objective of the Y-Teens. The Clark group is one of eight high school chapters in the Calumet area, all of which are affiliated with the YWCA in Hammond. All high school girls are eligible for membership in this club.

Projects during the year included sending scrap-books portraying club activities to foreign countries and giving Christmas baskets to needy families. In the spring the Y-Teens held their annual potato chip sale.

Link in World-wide Chain

"Service for Others", the motto of the Junior Red Cross, states explicitly the purpose of the club.

Among its many benevolent activities this year were the making of useful articles for the Beatty Memorial Hospital, packing gift boxes to be sent overseas and constructing photograph albums for foreign schools. Over $100.00, the proceeds from their annual movie and membership drive, was donated to worthy organizations.

Girls interested in nursing have the opportunity to work in the nurse's office during the day. Here Emily Sotak reads the thermometer after taking Arlene Allen's temperature while Phyllis Perry tidies the medicine cabinet.

Hi-Y member Maynard Kessler sells milk to Eugenia Igras during fifth period lunch.

Lora Lee Throm, Antoinette Pafco and Virginia Vater, as library club members, check books in and return them to the shelves.

"May I have your attention, please?" Fred Thurston and Richard Hughes, members of Audio Visual Operators, broadcast an announcement over the public address system during homeroom period.

Student teacher Loretta Wojcik prepares for her career as a teacher by helping fourth graders with their reading.

At the National Honor Society initiation ceremony 18 seniors and nine juniors were inducted into the organization. Student Council officers for 1956-1957 were installed at the same time.

Attention, Please!

Audio Visual Operators, under the direction of Mr. Paul Wilkinson, supplement the education of their fellow students by means of audio visual aids. The boys belonging to this organization show classroom movies, make tape recordings for classes, operate the public address system, order films and repair equipment. They also add to the social life of Clarkites by taping music for dances and setting-up microphones for assemblies and dances.

Many Clark students who are interested in art but couldn't arrange their schedules to include such a class, compensated by joining the Art club.

At their biweekly meetings various projects were undertaken including portrait drawings with chalk, carving and construction. During the Christmas season they made greetings by means of stenciling and block printing.

As a money-making project the club sponsored a dance.

House Out, Curtain Up

"Behind-the-scenes" heroes and heroines of every theatrical production at Clark are the members of Boys' Stage Crew and Girls' Stage Crew.

Comprising these groups this year were 30 boys and 45 girls who worked under the direction of Miss Kathryn Carlson. At their meetings, which were held separately during different activity periods, their work was outlined, details pertaining to stage work were discussed and each person was given a specific assignment for the current production. For the girls these jobs ranged from applying make-up to making costumes and locating properties. The boys' responsibilities included constructing and situating scenery, regulating lights and adjusting the curtain.

Letters were awarded to those members who had accumulated 120 hours of service. Those who had a total of 150 hours were presented with gold pins.

When in Rome . . .

To give Latin students a background of Roman and Greek history and to study the lives of Romans which class time doesn't permit is the purpose of the Latin club. In order to accomplish this Greek history and myths were often discussed at their club meetings on the fourth Wednesday.

This year for the first time the first and second year groups were combined into a single club.

Como Esta Usted?

Assembling a scrapbook containing pictures and articles symbolizing the people of Latin American countries was one of the main projects undertaken by the Spanish club this year.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Eva Proctor members studied the customs and habits of Spanish-speaking people. Other features of their meetings were movies of Latin American countries and skits presented by the club members.

Limber Lassies

Sixty girls, members of the Modern Dance group, who are interested in creative dancing, met weekly this year in order to develop their skills. To become a member of Modern Dance one must pass several different tests. After several try-out sessions Miss Leota Kenzie, sponsor of the group, chose the new members.

Because this organization is the only one of its sort in the Calumet region, it is often featured at special programs for other schools and at Parent Teacher Association meetings. In addition to these special programs, the group gave a joint performance with the vocal music department at the annual Spring concert.

Noteworthy

More than 250 Clark students are engaged in the activities of the vocal music department this year.

Many long and tedious hours of rehearsal are spent annually by members of the A Cappella choir, mixed chorus, girls' choir, girls' chorus, boys' chorus and the four ensembles when they present the Winter Concert and the Spring Concert. An original and interesting show is staged at each concert. Exchange assemblies by Clark's and Hammond Tech's A Cappella choirs were initiated this year. During the Christmas season various vocal groups performed at school functions and were

The ensembles sang at the morning Easter services at school and also competed in the annual vocal ensembles contests. Rendering a memorable performance at Baccalaureate in June was the entire vocal music department.

Music Hath Charm to Soothe the Savage Beast

Performing in the spring and winter concerts, the state vocal music contest and making special appearances comprised the activities of the two girls' ensembles. Both Harmonettes, the triple trio, and Melo Tones, the double sextet, met one night a week to practice stage numbers and to sing for their own enjoyment.

Harmoncers, the advanced boys' ensemble, performed in an exchange concert with Hammond Tech. A new group this year was the Freshman boys' ensemble, the Hi Fi's. They practiced diligently with hopes of attaining positions with the Harmoncers in the future.

So We Shall Have Music

A plink, plank, plunk or a melodious serenade was often heard drifting from room 13 this year as the orchestra, directed by Mr. Darwin Eret, practiced diligently.

Their efforts were directed toward presenting concerts with Hammond High's orchestra in February and again in May. The best players on all instruments were sent to Manchester to join musicians from other schools in presenting a concert with the college orchestra. Soloists and ensembles participated in the city and state contests and the entire orchestra played in the Hammond Music Festival.

"Sleighride Fantasy", the orchestra's dance held on December 21, and their annual bake sale were the money-making projects this year.

Music, Maestro,

"How do you finger that rest?" This question may be meaningless to some Clarkites, but to the band member who has accidentally blasted a note at the wrong time it proves most embarrassing. To prevent this from happening at a crucial moment, preceding concerts and contests special practice sessions are held in addition to the regular fourth period practice.

Under the direction of Mr. Carlyle Snider the 65 piece band performed during the half-time at home football games, presented concerts in January and in May, participated in the Hammond Music Festival and sent soloists and ensembles to the annual contests. Several band members played in the pep band which appeared at basketball games.

Instead of having a dinner as their money-making project this year, the band members sold fudge. At the conclusion of this project the band was $675 richer. Band funds are used to repair and buy instruments and to finance trips.

Band members may earn letters and chevrons as well as solo and ensemble medals. At the spring concert senior members were awarded the traditional keys.

"We're with you, team, we're with you!" With this pledge the Booster club, under the direction of Miss Dolores McCampbell, supported Clark's athletic teams.

Members of Booster club sold shakers, Clark buttons and introduced the sale of Clark decals this year. Their dance, "The Basket Ball", was given to promote the sale of season basketball tickets. Money collected from these projects was used to purchase paper and paints necessary for the traditional signs and helped finance trips to out-of-town games.

Organized in 1952, the club this year had over 250 members who cheered the Pioneer teams on to victory.

Clark Royalty

One of the greatest thrills a Clark girl can know is to have a title of royalty bestowed upon her. The dream of owning a royal title is familiar to many girls and for four Clark girls it came true this year.

Delores Petri was crowned Homecoming Queen at the pep assembly held prior to the Clark-Whiting football game. Highlighting the Junior class dance was the coronation of Judy Grogan as Queen. Dan Przybyl was chosen King to reign with her. Crystal Ruskin was elected by Clark lettermen to reign as their "Sweetheart" at the C Club dance. Amid starlight and snowflakes Loretta Wojcik was selected Princess of the Senior class dance. Jim Kokenis, as Prince, shared honors with her.

These royal Clarkites presided over some of the top events at Clark and added considerably to festivities of the year.

YEARS OF SPIRITED

ATHLETICS

Go, you Pioneers, we will back you with all our might.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Go, you Pioneers, win this game for the blue and white.
With nothing less than victory our mark,
Let the spirit of George Rogers Clark inspire you.
Go, you Pioneers, let's see you fight! fight! fight!

Clark's school song, composed by Mr. Nilo Hovey, former Clark band director, expresses the spirit of Clark boosters and the goals of her athletic teams.

Oilers in Homecoming Tilt

Clark 13, Morton 12 . . . The opening game promised much from the Aldrichmen for with two seconds remaining in the first half and Morton ahead 12-0, Don Kurcz's 15 yard pass found Dick Dubish in the end zone. Later, with five minutes left in the game, Clark took possession on its own +3 yard line. Again pin-point passing put the ball in Morton territory. By spirited passing and running Clark scored, kicked the extra point with less than one minute to go and won in true Pioneer fashion.

E. C. Roosevelt 33, Clark 7 . . . Don Kurcz hit Dick Dubish with a 50 yard touchdown pass for Clark's lone score after Roosevelt had scored early in the first period. The Pioneer line, a bit shaky during the first half, held the Rough Riders to a single touchdown in the second half.

E. C. Washington 19, Clark 7 . . . The Pioneers had Washington shut out for three quarters but in the final period the Senators tore loose for 19 points. When Mike Benak hit Dick Dubish with a 19 yard pass the Pioneers scored.

Rensselaer 33, Clark 28 . . . After Rensselaer's Bombers had scored on the opening kickoff, Clark's Pioneers fought back and Mike Benak scored on a one yard plunge. Early in the second half Don Kurcz intercepted a pass and ran 43 yards for a touchdown, moving Clark ahead 21-14. The lead changed hands time and again with Bombers holding it at the finish of the contest after a final touchdown play with 19 seconds remaining.

Clark 13, Froebel 7 . . . Driving runs by Clark's backfield and good support from the line highlighted the Pioneers' first home game. As Bill Puskas returned a punt 42 yards to set the play for the first touchdown. In the fourth quarter a four yard line plunge put the gridiron ahead 13-7. Kurcz missed this conversion after making eight in a row.

Hammond High 35, Clark 0 . . . Hammond High's Wildcats broke loose in the first half to score 28 points but were tamed in the second half as the Pioneers allowed them to score only one touchdown. Don Kurcz paced a Clark passing attack which netted 141 yards but three interceptions killed any scoring ideas. Mike Benak also threw three passes to help in the attack.

Clark 20, Hammond Tech 20 . . . In the first period Don Kurcz scored from the six yard line ending the drive from the Clark 28. Tech fumbled the kickoff and Clark recovered on the Tigers' 27 yard line. Early in the second quarter Mike Benak scored Clark's second touchdown with a plunge of less than a yard. With only one minute and 15 seconds left in the game halfback Chuck Spanburg intercepted a Tech aerial on the Clark five yard line. Clark failed to score again and the contest remained tied at 20-20.

Clark 21, Whiting 20 . . . Senior fullback Don Kurcz scored two touchdowns, passed for a third and booted three extra points as Clark gave its Homecoming crowd a thrilling 21-20 victory. Kurcz scored the second touchdown on a screen pass from Mike Benak. The Pioneers scored their third touchdown as Kurcz passed to end Tom Roman who lateraled to halfback Jim Spataro for a nine yard play. After the game Don Kurcz was named "Most Valuable Player".

Settlers

After losing their initial game to Morton, 14-0, the Peterson-men came fighting back to win their next three contests. The Jayvees ended the season with a 4-2 record.

Bob Marianich scored two touchdowns to give the Settlers a 12-6 win over the Calumet Township Warriors. Fine running by Ed Palikan set up the winning score.

The Jayvees defeated Valparaiso 46-0 as Bill Puskas scored four touchdowns and Dick Freckleton racked up two. John Margeta intercepted a pass and ran for the first touchdown.

The other games found Clark romping over Tech 19-0, bowing to Hammond High 21-6 and defeating Whiting 18-7.

Homesteaders

Paced by a combination of the fine running of Balazs Volom and Gary Hoffman and spirited line play, the Homesteaders defeated Irving 13-0.

Then the Williamsmen, led by Ron Gabbert who scored three touchdowns, crushed Tech 28-7. Again teamwork proved the key to success.

Later in a rugged battle, Roosevelt defeated the Homesteaders 21-14. Dave Talabay scored on a 53 yard kickoff return and Dave McClure tallied on a 10 yard pass from Balazs Volom.

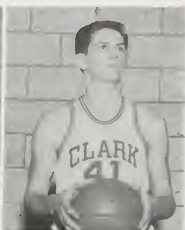

Other games found the Homesteaders bowing to Hammond High and subduing the Governors of Morton 20-6.

With 12 Wins, 10 Losses

Coming from behind in three of the first four games, as they did in many of the ensuing contests, the Pioneers began the season with four consecutive victories. In the South Bend Washington game the Pioneers, trailing at halftime, defeated Washington, 53-46, after a torrid second half. At Valparaiso the roundball squad played one of the most thrilling games of the season. With less than five minutes to play the Pioneers trailed by eight points. In the remaining minutes of game time hot Pioneer shooting, coupled with fine passing and ball-handling, overcame the deficit and secured a three point victory for Clark. In the first game of the Holiday Tournament, played at Whiting this year, Clark faced Roosevelt who had defeated them earlier. The inspired Pioneers defeated the Rough Riders but were stopped by a hot Rensselaer team in the championship game.

During the season Mike Benak grabbed 140 offensive and 150 defensive rebounds. Cliff Bartlett, high point man with 244 points, had 52 interceptions and 38 assists. In the course of the year many free throw records were established. Early in the season Art Mehuron's 13 consecutive free throws broke the old record of 11 held by Bill Schuhrke. Later John Shields hit 19 consecutive free throws to set a new record. During the Froebel game Dick Majcher hit 13 free throws. Jim Harmon, lanky center, won the annual trophy for the highest free throw percentage, sinking 50 of the attempted 65 for 76.9.

By defeating Morton in their first game of the Sectional Tournament, the Pioneers not only gained revenge on the Governors who had beaten them during the regular season play, but maintained the tradition of all basketball teams coached by Mr. Ed Shields—being victorious in their first sectional clash.

Settlers

Winning the annual Holiday City Tournament brought the city crown back to Clark. The Settlers defeated Hammond High in the first game, 50-30, and then beat Hammond Tech, 49-26. The Jayvees found themselves trailing at halftime in many contests, but the fighting Pioneer spirit proved too much for 13 foes. Only three times did their efforts fail them and never were they completely overwhelmed.

During the season the Settlers hit 60 percent of their free throws.

High point man was Chuck Sapyta with 114 points, followed by Joe Terranova with 103.

Homesteaders

Ending the season with a record of 10 wins and nine losses were Coach Norm Banas' freshmen. The Homesteaders defeated their cross-town rival Whiting once, East Chicago Roosevelt twice and Irving three times. Their other victories were at the expense of Hammond Tech, Morton, Munster and Valparaiso.

In the annual Holiday Tournament the Homesteaders captured second place. They also secured second in the Valparaiso Tournament.

An overwhelming victory over Irving, 54-11, ended their season.

Diamondmen End Season With 9-5-2 Record

Playing almost half their games in unusually cool weather, the hardballers had a good but shaky start winning five of their first seven games, then losing three straight. Playing rather streaky ball, they beat the first place Tech Tigers twice, but lost to Gary Lew Wallace and Gary Froebel, who finished seventh and eighth respectively. In the first contest with Whiting, the diamondmen collected only one hit, but capitalized on eight Oiler errors for their first victory, 8-0.

One of the highlights of the season came in the eighth inning of the Roosevelt game, when John Figler's pinch single to right center with two out pushed across the winning run.

Later the Pioneers held highly rated Bishop Noll to a one and one tie, which was called after eight innings because of rain.

Dick Majcher led the regulars in hitting with .325, collecting 13 hits. Rudy Kutansky paced the team with 11 RBI's, and Bill Schurhke scored the most runs, 12. The Pioneers finished fourth in the conference behind Gary Tolleston, Hammond Tech and Hammond High. The Diamondmen with strong pitching arms, a tight infield and a speedy outfield were the most balanced team in the region.

Dave "Duffy" Duffala foils Bob Kanyur's steal attempt.

Rudy Kutansky leaps to catch a high throw from third.

Mike DeShincoc packs a mighty wallop, but fails to connect.

The Pioneers had no trouble defeating Bishop Noll 33-21. Their losses were to Crown Point, twice; East Chicago Roosevelt, East Chicago Washington, South Bend Adams and South Bend Central.

Rich Adamczyk, Otto Breitweiser, Dick Dubish, Fred Gabbert, Bill Hoover, Dick Kania, Arnold Novotny and Jim Spataro won their major letters during the season.

In the State Championship against Eastern Division champs South Bend Washington, the Pioneers experienced their second defeat of the year.

Returning lettermen next year will be Steve Ban, Nikki Kutansky and Don Obuch, while Jim Campbell, John Kirn, Rudy Kutansky, Dave Paskwitz and Bill Rosenstein will not return due to graduation.

Turfmen Win 7, Lose 5

Enjoying the best season ever experienced by a Clark golf squad, Coach Al Peterson's turfmen closed the year with a record of seven wins and five losses. This marks the first season that a Clark golf team compiled a better than .500 average.

Highlighting the turfmen's schedule was the LaPorte sectional in which Clark's Pioneers defeated every other Hammond school.

Jim Campbell, John Kirn and Bill Rosenstein are the returning lettermen. Don Buell and Steve Kroccek graduated in 1956.

New Sponsors Initiate New Ideas in C Club

Mr. Bill Blaik, retired big ten referee, was the guest speaker at the C Club banquet. That evening the annual C Club award was presented to Bill Schuhrke, who was also named one of the region's top athletes.

Mr. Norman Banas and Mr. Steve Stavros, Clark alumni, are the new C club sponsors, initiating ideas for jackets and proper dress.

This year C Club members sold programs at all the home football games, and sold popcorn after school and at athletic contests. The profits were used to purchase jackets for the members of a championship team or for members who earned two letters in two sports in two years. To supplement school spirit at athletic contests C Club members who were participating in the game sat together to cheer.

November 30 was the date of the C Club dance. Crystal Ruskin was elected C Club Sweetheart by club members at a regular meeting. This began a tradition for the club as they will elect a new Sweetheart every year.

Pushing the sale of popcorn at a home football game are Nikki Kutansky, Jim Campbell, Dave Paskwitz and George Vischak.

For Ladies Only

Participating in many sports and activities constitutes the schedule of members of the Girls' Athletic club.

They started the year by selling refreshments at home football games. Before the fall season was over a picnic was held at Marquette Park. As the year continued the girls played softball, basketball, volleyball, swam and bowled at the near-by lanes.

Candidates for membership in GAC must take an active part in two sports. Having fulfilled this requirement they are informally initiated by the Senior girls. During the same week formal initiation is held at a Mother-Daughter Banquet. At the banquet awards, monograms and letters are presented to girls having the required number of points. The main event of the evening is the presentation of a special pin to the senior with the most points.

Girls' Athletic Club Officers — Row One: B. Halik, treasurer; J. Kalina, secretary
Row Two: P. Sandrick, president; M. Raycoft, vice president; J. Petruff, head of sports

Donned in initiation costumes these Freshman girls were put through stunts by Senior members.

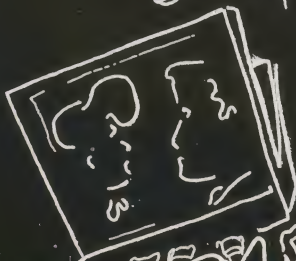

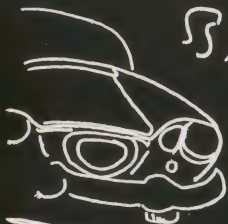

One of the favorite sports of GAC members is bowling. Marilyn Bryerton, Marianne Forauer, Pauline Dupin and Agnes Zmija try for 300.

ADVERTISING

It has often been said that the best advertisement for a product is the product itself. The next best thing is to advertise in a school yearbook.

Local businesses and industries, by advertising in the 1957 POWDER HORN, enable the Clark student, who will be the adult consumer of tomorrow, to better acquaint himself with their products and services.

NORTHERN INDIANA

You're saying goodbye to your high school days—but you're saying hello to new, exciting days ahead. Congratulations and welcome to the future!

In this future, Inland Steel's opportunities are yours . . . opportunities open to high school grads.

If you have some mechanical training or aptitude, there are careers open in many fields: as machinists, welders, electricians, patternmakers, pipefitters, boilermakers. There are careers to follow in metallurgy and chemistry. And there are opportunities in the office and clerical fields. The job of production—making the steel needed to keep America strong—offers a challenge to alert, young men.

You can have a "get-ahead" future through Inland's training opportunities. You can get apprentice or on-the-job training to become more skilled in your trade. You also can get college training and a college certificate through the Purdue-Inland Training Program, a program where Inland sponsors you through this course at Purdue Extension.

Inland has been in the busy Calumet Region for more than a half-century. We'll be here in the future, too, because we're a basic industry, making a product used by everyone, including the housewife opening a can of peas and the G.I. firing an artillery shell.

Inland Steel Company serves the nation—and it can serve you, too, in the exciting days ahead.

NEAL PRICE'S FIRESTONE

SAVE TOWARDS A GOAL!

Even if your child is still a gurgling babe-in-arms, it's time to start preparing for his education. Open an account in his name at LIBERTY SAVINGS AND LOAN, tomorrow, with $1.00 or more. If you add only $5.00 a week for the next 17 years, you will have well over the $4,000 mark. Part of that "well over" will be generous dividends that those dollars will have earned.

All accounts insured to $10,000.

the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 1999). The prevalence of mental health problems has increased in all age groups, but the increase has been most marked in the young (Mental Health Foundation 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the mental health needs of young people. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for mental health care for children and young people, which sets out a vision for the future of mental health care for young people. The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) young people should be able to access mental health services when they need them; (2) mental health services should be integrated with other services; (3) mental health services should be based on evidence-based practice; and (4) mental health services should be based on the needs of young people.

The strategy also sets out a number of key objectives for mental health care for young people. These include: (1) to reduce the incidence of mental health problems; (2) to improve the early identification and treatment of mental health problems; (3) to improve the quality of mental health care; (4) to improve the access to mental health services; and (5) to improve the support for young people and their families. The strategy also sets out a number of key actions to achieve these objectives.

It is indeed a shame I won't be able to become better acquainted with you & your talents! Perhaps we could have "stirred up" a little something together — well c'est la vie! Best of wishes, Becky, & keep smiling — it shows!
